

Information Mosaic Discusses Corporate Actions Tax Implications at Securities Operations Forum's 5th Annual Corporate Actions Processing Workshop in Boston

New York, March 27- Kevin Cullen, Information Mosaic's Marketing Director, participates on the panel "Tax, Technology, and Corporate Actions" at the Securities Operations Forum's 5th Annual Corporate Actions Processing Workshop held in Boston on March 27th, 2008. The workshop is a venue for corporate actions practitioners from leading financial services firms to analyse current problems that are encountered on a regular basis and to learn about the latest solutions and best industry practices.

The panellists included Stevie Conlon, Tax Director, Wolters Kluwer Financial Services, and Martin Foont, President and CEO of GlobeTax Services. The panel focussed on a test case involving a Norwegian merger resulting in an ADR and detailed the tax implications of all options. Each panellist presented and discussed one facet of the complete processing cycle: announcement and tax implications (Wolters Kluwer); operational flow and tax calculation (Information Mosaic); and tax reclaim (GlobeTax).
