

Information Mosaic to Participate at the 2nd Annual Corporate Actions Processing Conference in New York on October 22nd, 2008

Information Mosaic's Marketing Director, Kevin Cullen, will be a panellist at the 2nd Annual Corporate Actions Processing Conference organized by the Financial Technology Forum on October 22nd, 2008. Kevin's panel is entitled, "Identifying and Managing Risks in Corporate Actions". At press time, Amy Harkins, Senior Vice President, The Bank of New York Mellon, is a confirmed panellist, as well. The panel is being moderated by Nancy Andrews Turbe, Senior Manager, Accenture Capital Markets Solutions Group.

The Corporate Actions Processing Conference is an annual event that brings business and technology executives from financial firms together to discuss the latest industry trends and technological advances in global corporate actions processing.

Information Mosaic to Participate on Panel at the 6th Annual SIFMA Corporate Actions Division Educational Seminar to be held November 12th, 2008 in New York

Information Mosaic's Marketing Director, Kevin Cullen will again participate as a panellist at the 6th annual SIFMA Corporate Actions Division Educational Seminar to be held in New York on November 12th. The Corporate Actions Division of SIFMA holds this event each year and is attended by senior executives representing major financial industry firms.

The others on the panel are Stevie Conlon, Tax Director, Wolters Kluwer Financial Services, and Martin Foont, President and CEO of GlobeTax Services. The content of the panel was still being developed at press time.